COUNTER ATTACKS OF ENEMY ARE REPULSED

Teutons Use Austro-Hungarians in Effort to Stop Entente Advance—Americans Drop Bombs Behind Enemy's Line

(By the Associated Press.)

Notwithstanding the fact that the Germans have brought up strong reinforcements on both wings of the battle front, the British and French forces everywhere have beaten off the enemy and continued their victorious progress.

Many additional towns have been captured by Field Marshal Haig's men in the north, while the French have successfully overcome obstacles placed in their way and reached territory north of Soissons, which adds further to the danger of the Germans in the Noyon sector and to their line running eastward from Soissons to Rheims.

All along the front from Arras to the Somme, the Germans are gradually being driven back to the old Hindenburg line by the British. Along the Somme, the enemy is being harassed well to the east of Bray, while farther north, strong counter attacks have been repulsed and the town of Mametz, the Mametz wood, Martinpuich, Le Sars and LeBarque have been captured.

Bapaume's Evacuation Imminent.

It is around Bapaume that the Germans are keeping up their strongest efforts to hold back the tide that is surging against them, but the British are continuing to make slight gains daily in the progress of surrounding the town, which seemingly must be evacuated. The taking of Le Sars and LeBarque appears to be a forerunner of this eventuality. LeBarque is only two and one-half miles southwest of Bapaume.

Everywhere, except directly south of Bapaume, the British are well across the Bapaume-Albert road, and north of the town they are fast pressing forward toward the old Hindenburg line. Unofficial reports have placed the British in the outskirts of Bullecourt, which is just west of the old line.

Since last Wednesday the British have taken more than 17,000 prisoners and large numbers of guns and great quantities of supplies also have fallen into their hands. Some of the prisoners taken have been identified as coming from Austria-Hungarian units.

The Germans are launching strong counter attacks against the French between the Oise and Ailette rivers, in an endeavor to hold back General

English Reach Points Within Thousand Yards of the Old Hindenburg Line

With the British Army in France, August 25, 10 p. m.—On some parts of the northern battle front the British have reached points a thousand yards from the old Hindenburg line, which seems strongly held.

In addition to crossing the Albert-Bapaume road at many places, the British have made progress southward for a considerable distance, with the cavalry operating in front of the infantry.

Resistance of a really strong nature seems to be slightly diminishing at many places along the battle front, but where the bulk of the Germans are retreating, they have left the country virtually ceded with single machine guns in protected positions and groups of machine guns in nests.

Never before, not even during the progress of this battle have the airplanes had such numerous targets for their bullets and bombs.

153 ARMY CASUALTIES.

Washington, D. C., August 25.—The casualties in the American Expeditionary Force abroad are announced as follows:

Mangin's army, which is threatening the entire German front in this region.

French Also Take Prisoners. Here also the Germans have been reinforced by troops from the dual monarchy. North of Soissons, in the region of Bagnoux, the French have made further progress eastward and now are abreast the railroad line running from Soissons to Laon. A considerable number of additional prisoners have fallen into French hands.

As yet there has been no movement by the Germans along the Vesle river to indicate that retirement toward the Aisne is in immediate prospect. The Americans and French in this region continue to heavily shell the enemy's back areas.

Farther east, in the Vosges region, the Americans are keeping up their patrol activities against the enemy. The Americans also are busily engaged in bombing German points behind the line. Thirty-eight bombs were dropped from airplanes on Comblans Saturday and ten direct hits were scored. Considerable fighting in the air also is taking place, one American airplane apparently having disposed of two German Fokkers and two other Americans each sending down one enemy plane.

reported captured, while Eaucourt l'Abbaye, Contalmaison and Courcelles has been occupied by the British. Sapignies is completely in British hands after hard fighting. At last reports a local battle within the big battle was being fought at Morv and its environs, where the line runs through the town. St. Lege was captured and left far behind. After having once been reported in Cric-les-Bois, the British withdrew to the outskirts. The Germans counter attacked heavily and the British retired to the edge of the town and poured shells into the place while pressing forward on the sides.

CONGRESS HAS BIG TASKS THIS WEEK

Man Power Bill, Passed Saturday By House, Now Goes Before Senate

CONSIDER PROHIBITION

Efforts Being Made to Have Liquor Traffic Continued Several Months For Revenue

Washington, D. C., August 25.—Enactment of the man power bill extending army draft ages to 18 and 45 years; the launching of the $5,000,000,000 war tax measure in the house, and probably definite action on national prohibition during the war are the big tasks before congress this week.

As passed yesterday by the house in virtually the form submitted by the administration, the bill will be transferred tomorrow to the senate, reported by the senate military committee with its "work or fight" and other minor amendments and substituted in the senate for the measure which has been under debate there. Passage by the senate tomorrow or Tuesday, quick agreement in conference, and transmission to President Wilson before the week-end, is the course planned for the bill.

The revenue bill is to be completed tomorrow by the house ways and means committee, formally introduced in the house Thursday and called up for initial consideration on the following Monday. To expedite senate consideration, Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee plans a meeting late this week to set a date to begin hearings on the house draft measure. Ten days of senate committee's hearings are planned and passage of the bill by the senate early in November is hoped for.

Consider War-Time Prohibition.

Important developments are expected this week on the question of war time prohibition. The bill, under a senate agreement, comes up for consideration tomorrow, but leaders have agreed to lay it aside temporarily until after disposal of the man power bill.

Prohibition will follow the draft bill and negotiations now on between "wet" and "dry" leaders of the senate tend toward a compromise. As pending, the bill proposes virtually "bone dry" prohibition for the country beginning January 1 next, and efforts are being made to secure a respite of several months for the liquor traffic, which is important in connection with federal revenues and the new war tax bill.

Sharp contests are expected in the senate tomorrow on the principal amendment to the man power bill, affecting youths under 21, and the "work or fight" proposal. Defeat of all amendments designed to raise the minimum age of 18 to defer service of those under 21 generally is predicted. The consensus of leaders' opinions, however, is that the "work or fight" amendment will be retained in the bill and sent to conference, where it will form the principal controversy with the house.

FIRE CAUSES MILLION AND HALF LOSS IN OHIO

Whole Block Destroyed in Blaze At Canton; Several Industries Affected

Canton, Ohio, August 25.—Fire, which started shortly before 6 o'clock this evening in Klein & Heffernan company's store, destroyed the block surrounded by Tuscarawas, East Second, Walnut and Piedmont streets, causing a loss estimated at $1,600,000.

At 8:30 the fire was still burning and had spread to the block south of Second street into the Dine Dewees company buildings.

The local fire department was reinforced by companies summoned from Akron and Missillon. The fire was not under control until about 9:30 p. m. The origin is unknown.

Concerns whose places of business were destroyed are the Stark Dry Goods company, Scioto Valley Supply company, Flory Grocery & Baking company, Canton Dry Goods company, Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, branch, Cohen Clothing company, A. B. Spangle Leather Goods company, and the Dine-Dewees Dine-Dewees company, dealers in automobile supplies.

The driver of a hook and ladder wagon was seriously injured when a building collapsed and two other firemen were overcome by smoke. The loss is estimated at $1,596,000.

Steamer Runs On to Reef and Sinks; No Lives Lost

Watch Hill, R. I., August 25.—The hulk laden steamer George Hudson ran onto a reef and sank in 41 feet of water during a thick fog off here today. Captain William D. Murray and his crew of 30 men reached shore in a seine boat.

The Hudson was bound for Mystic, Conn., from a New Jersey port with a cargo of 1,000 barrels of menhaden. She was owned by the Atlantic Coast Fisheries company, was of 142 gross tons and was valued at $80,000.

The reef that she struck marks the grave yard of many vessels. The last ship to be wrecked there was the Clyde line freighter, Onondaga, on the night of June 25 of this year.

CUNARD LINE WAIVED OF LUSITANIA'S LOSS

Germany Wholly Responsible For Vessel's Sinking, According to New York Judge

New York, August 25.—The Cunard Steamship company cannot be held liable for loss of life and property in the torpedoing of the Lusitania by a German submarine, according to a decision handed down in the admiralty branch of the United States district court by Judge Julius Mayer and made public today.

"The sinking of the Lusitania was an illegal act of the Imperial German government, acting through its instrument, the submarine command," declared Judge Mayer, who held that "the fault, therefore, must be laid upon those who are responsible for the sinking of the vessel in the legal as well as moral sense."

In dismissing suits against the Cunard line aggregating nearly $4,000,000, brought by heirs of persons who perished with the Lusitania on May 7, 1915, Judge Mayer asserted that "it is not to be doubted that the United States of America and her allies will well remember the rights of those affected by the sinking of the Lusitania, and when the time shall come, will see to it that reparation shall be made for one of the most indefensible acts of modern times."

Judge Mayer went exhaustively into claims that the Cunard line was negligent, and dismissed them with his conclusion that the captain and members of the crew took every precaution justified by the then-known facts both before and after the vessel was torpedoed.

"It is, of course, easy now," he declared, "in the light of many later events, added to preceding acts, to look back and say that the Cunard line and its captain should have known that the German government would authorize or permit such a shocking breach of international law and so foul an offense, not only against an enemy but as well against peaceful citizens of a then-friendly nation."

Judge Mayer declared that proof brought out in his investigation, which covered a year, is conclusive that the Lusitania was not and never had been armed and on the voyage on which she was sunk did not carry explosives. Discussing the war advertisement published by the German embassy in New York papers on May 1, the day the Lusitania sailed, Judge Mayer said:

"It is perfectly plain that the master was fully justified in sailing on the appointed day from a neutral port with many neutral and non-combatant passengers unless he and his company were yielding to any attempt of the German government to terrorize British shipping."

"Few at that time would be likely to construe the warning advertisement as calling attention to more than the peril to be expected from quick disembarkation and the possible rigors of the sea after the proper safeguarding of the lives of passengers by at least full opportunity to take to the boats."

Judge Mayer held that the emergency equipment of the Lusitania measured fully up to maritime requirements, and declared that while there was considerable confusion on the liner after she was torpedoed, the officers and the greater part of the crew acted with the matter of fact courage and fidelity to duty which is traditional with men of the sea."

DROWNED ON WAY TO CHURCH. Uca, August 25.—While going in a canoe across Fourth lake, Fulton Chain, to church this morning, Henry Clay Reimer of Brooklyn, representative of the New York office of the United States steel corporation, was drowned. He and his wife were overturned by swells of passing motorboat. Mrs. Reimer clung to the canoe until help arrived. Mr. Reimer sank at once and his body has not been recovered.

FRENCH VICTORY INCONTESTABLE

General Mangin's Forces Make 13,000 Germans Prisoner and Capture 300 Cannon

HUNS RETREAT HASTILY

Poilus in Possession of Portions of Banks of the Oise and Ailette Rivers

With the French Army in France, August 25.—The first phase of the battle of the Aisne and Oise has put the French in solid possession of the entire south bank of the Oise west of the Ailette and also the Ailette river from the Oise to Pont St. Mar.

At a point near where it is crossed by the road from Chauny to Soissons, General Mangin's men along the Ailette and further south at Crey-aux-Monts, Pommier and Juigny, command this important road all the way from Soissons to the Oise. They also command the Laon railroad, which from the region of Courcelle-Chateau northward runs nearly parallel with that road.

The Germans are thus thrown back upon the hilly forest region of Coucy for communication between, their troops operating on the Oise above the Ailette and their troops on the Aisne east of Soissons.

Both Sides Command Oise.

Both sides command the Oise with their artillery. French scouts reconnoitering the stream have found it so fearfully defended by machine gun nests and by artillery behind in the hills along from Noyon to Chauny that it will require considerable work by the heavy artillery to deal with the situation before a crossing in force is attempted.

On the right bank of the Ailette the Germans are resisting stoutly from a strong position along the edge of the forest of Coucy. Small parties of French have affected a crossing of the stream but no serious effort has yet been made to establish a position on the opposite bank.

As the situation is today, General Mangin has won an incontestable and substantial victory of which there is plenty of material evidence on the field, besides 13,000 prisoners and 300 cannon captured. He set out to drive the Germans from the plateau of Andignicourt, Namtrel and Carlepont to a violent thrust northward, then by a quickfacing about toward the east to drive them off the high heights west of the Ailette, thus clearing the south bank of the Oise and lending support to the third army's action in the hills of Thiencourt.

The program succeeded in every form and so rapidly that, though the enemy may say that he retired unhindered, some of his staff officers were obliged to flee in scanty attire. A German general was seen running from one of the exits of a cavern at the top of Mount Choisy without boots or suspenders, just as French soldiers appeared at the other entrance.

Hun General Forgets His Suspenders.

The correspondent, who later visited the cavern, found in it other evidences of the hasty departure of the German divisional staff that occupied it. Along with the general's boots and suspenders there were several pairs of costly field glasses. A complete telephone system and other booty also was left behind.

In the piles of arms and ammunition there that has been collected on and around the heights there are a considerable number of bayonets with saw tooth blades.

If the Germans did not intend to remain south of the Oise, they evidently thought they could hold this position, and they were driven out of it precipitately, though it was stoutly defended and proved to be a hard task for General Mangin's army.

The ships were covered with brush that hid the piles and eastern entrances while machine gun nests in ambush held up the division that was engaged in the attack from 5 o'clock in the morning to 8 in the evening. The Germans were even preparing to spend the night in their elaborately fitted headquarters in the quarry at the top, but after a short artillery preparation the place was stormed and the German staff had only just time to get away. One officer who was taken prisoner said: "The French are making war in an entirely new fashion. It is a great attack."

Rank and file prisoners without exception agree that Germany is doomed to defeat. Most of these men were in machine sections that the Germans' new tactics sacrificed to protect the retreat and they expressed their sentiment freely.

American Troops Invited to Make Landing At Archangel, Says Official Announcement

Archangel, Russia, Thursday, August 22.—An official announcement issued today by the Entente Allied government in the northern region of Russia denied the statement recently made by Lenin and Trotsky, the Bolshevik premier and war minister, respectively, that Great Britain, France and the United States were enemies of Russia. The Allied military action, the announcement added was aimed at the expulsion of the Germans from Russian territory and the suppression of force of arms of the Great-Litovsk treaty, traitorously signed by the Bolsheviks. But they were called with the distinctly specified condition that they must not mix themselves in the internal affairs of the government of Russia.

"This government had been formed and was overturned by the illegitimate Bolshevik government before the descent of the Allies. It was formed on the initiative of the League of Regeneration of Russia, which reunites representatives of the political parties recognizing the constituent assembly as the only rightful Russian government."

"The Allies were then called to Russia by the only legitimate and representative authority for the purpose of military action in common, aiming at the expulsion of the Germans and the complete suppression by force of arms of the Great-Litovsk treaty, traitorously signed by the Bolsheviks. But they were called with the distinctly specified condition that they must not mix themselves in the internal affairs of the government of Russia."

REVERSE DECISION, TRAVIS CASE

Action Restores Names of Travis and Fraser on Republican State Ballot.

New York, August 25.—The appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn has reversed a decision of Supreme Court Justice Crosey that county clerk's certificates were essential to the validity of nominating petitions. This action of the appellate division restores the names of State Comptroller Eugene M. Travis and Samuel Fraser as candidates to nomination for comptroller to the Republican ticket.

The decision of the appellate division was unanimous. The five justices concurred and filed a memorandum with the clerk of the county courts, explaining why they thought the decision of Justice Crosey was faulty and should be reversed.

Counsel for John Kissel, the third candidate for nomination as comptroller, on whose application Justice Crosey ruled Travis and Fraser off the Republican ballot, announced that the case would be taken to the court of appeals at Albany.

HORSE "RETURNS" IN ENGLAND.

London, England, August 25. — In England the war has relegated the automobile to the garage and brought the horse back into its own.

Owing to gasoline restrictions, taxicabs are becoming extremely scarce in London and the hansom cabs of the old days have been restored to popularity.

Dealers in dogcarts, gigs, traps, carriages and all other kinds of horse-drawn conveyances are reaping a big profit. For six months prices have been going up steadily, until vehicles which were for disposal at firewood prices owing to the vagaries of the motor car are now fetching more than they cost when they were new.

Members of the royal family use horse-drawn conveyances, and the munition millionaire, General a motor except for war work, is investing in a carriage and pair.

BUILDING MECHANICAL BAKERY

BOYS OF MILLARD'S COMPANY ALL WELL AND WORKING HARD DAILY.

People of European Countries Receive the Surplus of Their Lives in the Fighting Spirit Shown by Americans—Uncle Sam Has Done Big Things in France.

D. W. Orcutt is in receipt of a letter from Private A. L. Bergen with the Bakery company, No. 161, M. G. A. E. F., written August 6, which passed successfully the scrutiny of Captain Jesse A. Millard and from which the following excerpts are taken:

After a long and interesting ocean voyage we arrived safely on French soil, three weeks ago last Saturday. I say interesting voyage, for such it was for the first two or three days, but then the water and sky became monotonous to look at.

On arrival we were stationed in a rest camp for a few days and then traveled for two days and nights to the city of Nevers, where we were stationed for a week or so. We did not get much rest there, for the boys worked very hard while there handling all kinds of material for the front. We left Nevers a week ago last Sunday night arriving at our present station the following night. On arrival here we were billeted in a concrete under construction and slept on a concrete floor, but we are now living under canvas and all the boys have built wooden cots. For military reasons I cannot mention the name of our present location other than to state that it is known as an advance station.

The boys are working hard every day in the construction of a mechanical bakery which we will assist in operating after completion and think we will be here for the duration of the war. The boys are all in good health and have wonderful appetites for the goods sent us here. Conditions are much better here than we anticipated and it is sometimes hard to realize that we are in France. Like the southern policy, we find that the people over here know how to charge for everything. Before the American boys landed most everything was figured in sous but now it is in francs.

All the buildings over here are constructed of stone and concrete and the streets resemble alleys in the states. The village or town is located about 10 minutes' walk from camp and we are allowed to visit there between the hours of 5 and 9 p. m. without passes on week days and all day, Sundays 9 p. m. There is not much of interest in the town except to visit the wine shops to partake of light wines and beers. There are two X. M. C. A. buildings located in the camp where moving pictures or entertainment of some kind is conducted every evening. The majority of the boys find the French language hard to master and some of them are attending a French class being conducted in the X. M. C. A. huts three nights a week.

All of the churches I have thus far seen are constructed entirely of stone and the architecture and furnishings are beautiful. I am enclosing herewith a postal card picture of the cathedral in Nevers, where we attended mass a week ago last Sunday. The people of the European countries are receiving the surprise of their lives in the fighting spirit shown by the Americans. As you have undoubtedly read in the press our boys are eating the Huns alive and will soon have them up against the wall. If the people back in the states could see what big things Uncle Sam has performed over here they would be more than surprised, as we were.

France is a very beautiful country but in good old U. S. A. looks better to me and the sooner we get back the better I will be satisfied. How is the general order proposition progressing? I pres me Al Valle has changed several signals and the doors of the Tunnel are now open.

OBITUARY.

Abram F. Moore.

Abram F. Moore, whose death was briefly noted in The Star of Saturday, was born October 9, 1847, in the town of Milford and was one of the eight children of Jacob and Sally (Sargent) Moore. Most of his earlier life was spent in that township. In 1863 he enlisted in the Union army and served faithfully until peace was declared in the spring of 1865, when he returned to his native country.

Later he came to Oneonta, and save for brief intervals spent as a farmer in the towns of Milford and Davenport, had resided here until about five years ago when he moved to Laurens, which had since been his home. He had been failing in health for some time and about four weeks ago he came to the home of his sister, Mrs. Harriet Kenyon, at 2, Center street, where he died.

Mr. Moore was twice married, his first wife being Miss Annie Oakes of Lodi, this county. She died a few years ago. He is survived by his second wife, formerly Annie Nichols of Unadilla, and by a son of his first marriage, Frederick Moore, whose home when last heard from was in Cleveland, Ohio. He leaves also Mrs. W. H. Drew and Mrs. Kenyon, both of this city, also several nephews and nieces.

The funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. Kenyon at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Dr. C. S. Pendleton of the Free Baptist church will officiate. The funeral post of the Grand Army, of which Mr. Moore was a member, will attend the service in a body and its ritual will follow the regular service at 2 o'clock. The body will be taken to Laurens for interment beside his first wife.

CLARK B. HULL DEAD.

First Rural Mail Carrier in Otego County Passes Away at Otego.

Clark B. Hull, who was the first rural mail carrier in Otego county and who has been carrier on route 2 out of Otego for some 18 years, died at his home in that village Saturday afternoon, after an illness dating from May last, from a complication of stomach and bowel troubles. The funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 11 o'clock from his late residence. Rev. Yale Lyon of Unadilla will officiate and interment will be made in Hillington cemetery, Morris. The Otego Odd Fellows lodge of which the deceased was a member will have charge of the committal service at the grave. The Rev. Schalks will also attend the funeral in a body.

Mr. Hull was born in Morris November 24, 1846, and was a son of the late Josiah Hull, long a well-known resident of that town. He followed farming in that town until 15 years ago when he removed to Otego and became the first rural mail carrier in the county, taking charge of route 1 from that village when it was established. He remained in charge of the route to his death, having had a leave of absence during his last illness. He was long a member of the Episcopal church at Morris and also of the Otego Odd Fellows' lodge. He was a man universally held in high regard, and all learn of his death with sincere regret.

The deceased is survived by a widow, who was formerly Frances Mary Washburn of Butternuts, and by two sons, Ernest J. Hull of Rochester and Frank C. Hull of Oneonta.

Canine Life Saver.

Dogs have been given their share of credit for saving human life, from time to time, but it is doubtful if any canine, however faithful, has ever given a better account of himself as a life saver than a dog did here. While driving home to their farm from Pipestone, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thiele were run down at a cross road by another car which was traveling at great speed. When the crash occurred the Thiele car was picked up by the other and the force of the collision threw a fifteen-months-old baby from Mrs. Thiele's arms. The child would have met certain death beneath the cars but for the fact that in falling the baby struck a dog which was riding on the foot-board of the other car. The dog grabbed the dress of the child and clung to it until the cars could be stopped. The baby received fewer injuries than did the other occupants of the cars. Both machines were badly wrecked. Pipestone (Minn.) Dispatch.

Hand-Made Springs.

Small springs may be accurately formed by winding the wire tightly into the threads of a machine screw. This forms a spring as perfectly as a hand-made spring desired should be used, to allow for the resiliency of the wire.

DOCTOR COULD NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her from a Serious Operation.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I suffered something dreadful from a displacement and two very bad attacks of inflammation. My doctor said he could do nothing more for me and I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Operations upon women in hospitals are constantly on the increase, but before submitting to an operation for ailments peculiar to their sex every woman owes it to herself to give that famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. MOVIE INDUSTRY IS ESSENTIAL.

Washington, D. C., August 25. — The motion picture industry in all its branches has been recognized as an essential industry by the war industry board. Chairman Baruch announced that this action had been taken in line with Provost Marshal General Crowder's ruling under the "work or fight" regulations that the industry affords useful occupation. Its value in affording an educational medium for the great masses of people, as well as a wholesome and cheap means for enjoyment, is recognized.

Change N-O-W to W-O-N

Did you ever notice the similarity of the word "NOW" to "WON"? Separate the letters in the word "now," and you have "n-o-w." Spell it backwards and you have "w-o-n."

Isn't it plain that to be able to say, "I 'won,'" I must do a thing now, and that the elements used for attaining the "won" column are largely built around the word "now"? Action or inaction now is the determining factor. The word "won" will never be written unless someone actually performs an act "now."

HOW FARMERS HELP WIN WAR.

There are many ways to help win the war outside of actual fighting in the trenches. Millions will be called to do this, but there are more millions who at home will help as effectively and will as surely be doing their part to bring an end to the great conflict for the overthrow of autocracy and the secure establishment of democracy on earth. Among those who can contribute and are contributing much to this great end are the farmers. Various instances clipped from exchanges tell what they are doing in scattered sections of the country, and a synopsis of them cannot fail to be of interest.

The Farm Bureaus, of which a year ago there were 23 in the country, with a membership of only 36,000, now number 725, and they have over 300,000 members. The Farm Bureau movement had gained much headway before the war, and there is no doubt that there would have been a considerable increase if there had been no fighting, but the increase of over 300 percent was in large part due to the general policy of conservation and of farm activity which the war had brought about.

To help the farmers the government has utilized the motion picture films, and new ones are being sent out every week which show the work of pig clubs, road building, fire prevention, poultry management, cattle raising, sheep grazing and many others. Under government oversight the films are becoming an educational factor toward teaching the farmer how to win the war.

In eighteen states of the country boys and girls have planted 10,000 ounces of beet seed for the purpose of making sugar beet syrup. The estimate is 40,000 gallons of home-made syrup, which to that extent releases sugar for consumption abroad.

A tour of inspection throughout the middle and New England states shows that farmers to a larger extent than in many years are raising their own food supply. Wheat, barley, corn and buckwheat are being grown as not before in two score years; and there is a general disposition to make the land not only feed the cow but the man.

Figures at hand in the department of agriculture show that the present is to be a record year for home canning. During the year there has been a 50 per cent increase in the number of firms manufacturing home canning supplies, and a 300 per cent increase in the demand for can rubbers of standard quality. This means at least three times as much home canning as ever before. What is canned at home releases just as much for shipment overseas.

Towns all over the country are organizing clubs to aid farmers in their work. The department instances as a typical one the neighboring village of Delhi, which has 35 business men available every day for work on nearby farms. One of the local ministers has set the example and spends one day every week helping the farmers in his congregation.

Rabbits in the west have long been a pest, and of the 200,000,000 killed every year, the majority have not been utilized in the past. Canneries are now being established, as they have been in Australia, and the meat will be canned and sold in the markets of the country. Estimating the weight at two pounds each the total would be 200,000 tons which would go a long way toward helping out the meat situation.

There are 18,000 bushels of potatoes ready to be dug in one New Jersey town. The citizens of the nearby towns are organizing a force of 1,500 helpers to aid the farmers and their regular employees in the emergency. Later they will furnish help to harvest corn and for other emergency farm work.

These are some of the special activities of the year which will be of interest to farmers. There are many others, but this brief summary indicates that the people of the country as a whole are fully alive to the importance of farm work and to the part which the farmer is taking in winning the war.

Osterhout Reunion.

The annual reunion of the family of Mrs. Albert Osterhout was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. C. Hanes of East Oneonta, August 24. Although it was her 75th birthday she was as active as any of the guests present. After a beautiful dinner in which "Hooverism" predominated, the company was entertained with some very fine music furnished by Miss Mabel Sanford of Franklin. After a social visit enjoyed by all, the guests left, vowing Mr. and Mrs. Hanes royal entertainers.

SUNDY COMMENT OF THE PRESS

Vardaman's Defeat.

There will be general satisfaction throughout the country over the defeat of Senator Vardaman in the Mississippi primaries of that late, loyal American, Representative Pat Harrison.

For many years Vardaman has consistently represented all that was worst in southern politics. His record in peace was little if any better than his record in war, although war served to emphasize the man's selfishness as a senator in the congress of the United States. The country has seen no other such example of utter ineptitude in the management of Mississippi in having Vardaman in the senate as a colleague of John Sharp Williams.

Postal "Efficiency" in Washington.

In Washington, agents of the government are looking for a man who obtained possession of 12 registered letters addressed to the shipping board, simply by signing for them, and absconded with them.

It appears, then, that even government mail, presumably of great importance, is so carelessly handled, almost under the nose of Postmaster General Burleson, that anyone can get possession of it without being required to prove that he is entitled to receive it. —[Albany Journal.

Reason for Pride.

"Yes, sir," said the boastful parent, "my boy is the smartest kid in his school, huh-heve me!"

"What's he done bright?" asked the envious neighbor.

"He's invented a scheme to pass an examination by getting his lessons instead of cribbing!" — [Richmond Times-Dispatch.

The Truth of It.

"The world owes me a living."

"Mister, nowadays that is all changed. You owe the world a year or two in the trenches." — [Detroit Free Press.

Information Wanted.

What we want to know right quick is whether the 27-year jail sentences of the I. W. W. include hard labor or not? — [Washington Post.

A Settled Question.

The Germans and Austrians are wrangling over the Polish question, when the fact is that there is no Polish question any more than there is a question of Alsace-Lorraine. The Germans and Austrians are going to have their hands full to deal with their own questions for a while. Mr. Hapsburg, who has been nominated for the job of king of Poland, is not wanted in Poland, which country he has no more right to rule than he has to occupy the governor's mansion at Albany. If he isn't blown up or shot, his term will expire suddenly with the closing of the war. — [Utica Herald.

A Lucid Interpretation.

As we understand it from the explanations of the German war correspondents, von Hindenburg lengthened his lines in order to shorten them. — [Dallas News.

To Be Admitted.

It must be admitted, however, that the Kaiser has come nearer fooling all his people all the time than any other ruler. — [Indianapolis News.

RUNS AWAY WITH MOTOR TRUCK.

Conny Carmick of Cherry Valley disappears with Father's Truck.

Conny Carmick jr., who, it is said, had some differences with his father on Saturday last, left the home late in the evening with a Cadillac truck used by his father in the farm work. The matter was referred to Sheriff Van Zandt at Cooperstown. Yesterday an investigation disclosed that the boy had gone to the home of a neighbor a short distance away and remained for the night. Early yesterday he started for Utica, it being his intention, according to information received, to sell the truck and secure money with which to get away.

Sheriff Van Zandt notified the police officers in Utica and the Mohawk valley and last evening received word from Herkimer that the young man with the truck had been taken into custody there and was being held for the sheriff. Mr. VanZandt will go to Herkimer today and bring the young man to Cooperstown.

PICNIC AT CANADARAGO PARK.

Hundred Employees of River-side Company Given Outing Today.

The Riverside Manufacturing company of this city will give its annual picnic to all employees today. It is expected that about 100 will attend. The start will be made in two special trolley cars from this city at 9 a. m. and 10 a. m. The day will be spent at Canadara go park, where a lunch will be served by the management and will be served with an accompaniment of ice cream and coffee. A launch trip around the lake will be provided and the party will have for home at 4 p. m. in the afternoon. The picnic is an event which is annually looked forward to with delight by all concerned, and the pleasure of previous years will not doubt be duplicated today.

Ralph Carrington Receives Scholarship.

Ralph Carrington, son of Charles E. Carrington of 29 Watkins avenue in this city, has received notice that he has been awarded a state scholarship entitling him to tuition for a four-year course in any of the colleges of the state. Mr. Carrington, who is a member of the class of '17, Oneonta High school, and who did not graduate work in the school last year, will enter Cornell at the opening of the term in September.

A LETTER FROM THE KING.

Fay E. Kelley Forwards Facsimile From England to Mother in Oneonta.

Fay E. Kelley of Company C of the 62d engineers has arrived in England, as a postal card received by his mother, Mrs. Charles Kelley of this city, announces. Along with the card came perhaps the first copy of the facsimile letter which King George causes to be sent to every American soldier who lands in that country. The letter, which will unquestionably be a long cherished souvenir in the home of the recipient, is as follows:

"Soldiers of the United States, the people of the British Isles welcome you on your way to take your stand besides the armies of many nations now fighting in the old world the great battle for human freedom. The Allies will gain new heart and spirit in your company. I wish that I could shake the hand of each one of you and bid you God speed on your mission. George R. I."

"April, 1918."

The letter is on heavy plate paper with the Royal crown watermarked in the center and the Royal arms and the words "Windsor Castle" embossed in red at the top. The envelope also bears the Royal coat of arms.

of the heat and the need of rain.

—After a week's respite the town clock is again striking to the satisfaction at least of the night workers though perhaps to the annoyance of night sleepers in the immediate vicinity.

—If you have read your copies of the late magazines and illustrated weeklies, sent then to the Y. M. C. A.
for the soldier boys who are to entrain tomorrow. It will be a patriotic disposition of them and will be much appreciated.

—Auto drivers should exercise care and give warning when turning from one street into another. Saturday afternoon a young cyclist narrowly escaped serious injury. Observing that he was about to be run down the cyclist turned his wheel sharply toward the gutter, but the motor car hit his hind wheel, overturning him, but he fortunately escaped with no serious injury.

CLARENCE HOTCHKISS INJURED.

Message to Family States That He Has Been Wounded in France.

Frank Hotchkiss of West Oneonta received a message on Saturday announcing that his son, Clarence F.
Hotchkiss, had been wounded in France on July 18. The message came from Washington authorities and gave no information as to the nature or extent of the injuries and no explanation as to why intelligence of his injuries has been so long delayed in arriving here. While it is to an extent reassuring that his injuries are probably not serious and that he is doubtless recovering, for had they terminated fatally earlier news would have been received, still it is surprising that no news from him should have come forward until after a month has elapsed, it is of course possible that an error was made in transmission and that the injuries were sustained August 18.

Mr. Hotchkiss is a member of Company A, Ninth Infantry. He enlisted in July, 1917, and has been overseas about 11 months, according to the information of the family. It is hoped that further intelligence from him will shortly be received.

THREE UNDER ARREST

Padded Pay Rolls in Division Engineers' Department Alleged

D. & H. OFFICERS RETICENT.

Names of Men in Custody Not Disclosed—Examination Before Deputy Commissioner O'Neil in Binghamton Today—Rumored That Large Sum May Be Involved.

Three men are under arrest in Binghamton and will be arraigned before Deputy United States Commissioner Joseph S. O'Neil of that city this morning in connection with irregularities said to have been unearthed involving employees connected with the division engineer's department of the Susquehanna division of the D. & H. railroad here, according to information reaching this city from Binghamton late last night. While it has been known that Lieutenant of Police Otto Abel and his assistant, Sergeant Walter D. Fox, have been working upon an important case in the city and late last week were aided by Deputy United States Marshal Van Valkenburg of Binghamton, no particulars could be secured here, late yesterday Officer Abel stating that the facts could not be disclosed at this time. While no definite statement is obtainable it is understood that the men under arrest are engaged in the track department and are from Oneonta or this vicinity.

Mr. O'Neil in Binghamton, while admitting that the men are in custody in connection with the alleged irregularities, declared that the evidence against the men is of a sub-judice character and must be considered as confidential at this time. The names of the men under arrest could not be learned either in that city or from officials here. Officer Abel, when seen after the news arrived from Binghamton, said that he was not at liberty to reveal any of the disclosures at present.

It is said that evidence would indicate that men engaged as track laborers, foremen on sections and perhaps even attaches of the office of the division engineer here have been involved in the matter and that subsequent disclosures may reveal that large sums of money have been misappropriated by the employment of padded pay rolls.

It is hinted that the case may warrant the calling into the investigation of a deputy United States attorney.
Up to the present time nothing has been brought to the attention of the D. & H. attorneys in Binghamton.
Messrs. Hinman, Howard and Kattell, or to the attorneys for the company here.

AN EPICURIAN BURGLAR.

Loves Potatoes, But Thinks Chickens
Are Much to Be Preferred.

There is a story told of a recent event of East End which indicates that while some thieves love potatoes they have a cultivated palate and think there are other things even better.

As narrated, a citizen who has a good potato patch, was surprised and doubtless annoyed on Friday morning when he found that it had been visited the night before and a considerable part of the field dug over and the potatoes taken away. Determined that the balance of the crop should be saved, he sat up all night Friday watching the field. Nothing happened and he went home in the early morning hours, only to find that during his absence his hen roost had been invaded and four or five of his choicest broilers had been taken.

This was bad enough, but insult was added to injury by a note saying that on the whole the visitor preferred chickens to potatoes.

A Compliment to Miss Hoffman.

A copy of the Akron, Ohio, Journal of last Thursday has a fine two-column picture of Miss Myrtle Marie Hoffman, who for the past two years has been one of the best known members of the Billy Allen Comedy company, which is now appearing at the Casino in that city. Of Miss Hoffman, who is an Oneonta girl, the Journal says in part: "Miss Hoffman has ambitions to become a screen star and may take up the work at the close of the present season. In her musical comedy work she evolves the praise of the cautious critic and the enthusiasm of the theatre fan."
She is an important factor in the success of the Billy Allen aggregation.

tody on Saturday charged with dis-

These men will probably be assigned to the judge advocate general's department or to the provost marshal

will consist largely of reporting court

Mrs. Fred Lane, of 35 Grand street.

Ivan S. Tillinghast, lately employed with the International Time Recording company at Endicott, but who had been spending the past two weeks with relatives in Harrisburg, Pa., arrived in Oneonta last evening and is spending a day or two with his parents
prior to leaving for Long Island,
where he enters the Pelham Bay Park Training station for the Naval reserve. Mr. Tillinghast enlisted in the service some time ago but did not receive his notice to join the camp

until last week.

Charles Odell returned last evening from an automobile trip of over eight-hundred miles, accompanied by Mr.
and Mrs. A. E. Odell, visiting Utica, Syracuse, Auburn, Rochester, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Jamestown, Olean, Watkins Glen, Elmira and Binghamton. While enroute they were pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. R. E.
Snyder of Olean, formerly secretary of the local F. M. C. A. of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burrows returned yesterday from Albany, where they had been to consult with a specialist relative to the injuries sustained by Mr. Burrows to his back when he was hit by a D. & H. locomotive in the yards here months since. A course of treatment was recommended which it was thought would prove beneficial. Miss Marion Burrows, their daughter, who had been spending the summer in Albany, returned with them.

Mrs. Boardman Returns Home.

Mrs. N. S. Boardman, wife of the pastor of the Episcopal church at Gaufrord, who was injured in an automobile accident at Arkville on Friday last, and who was brought to the Fox Memorial hospital for treatment, re-city by auto with her husband at about 3 p. m. Though considerably bruised and shaken up no bones were broken and there do not appear to have been any internal injuries.
